THE PINKERTON
CRITIC

ou would measure time the measureless and the immeasurable.

You would adjust your conduct and even direct the course of your spirit according to hours and seasons.

Of time you would make a stream upon whose bank you would sit and watch its flowing.

Yet the timeless in you is aware of life's timelessness,

And known that yesterday is but today's memory
and tomorrow is today's dream.

And that that which sings and contemplates in you is still dwelling within the bounds of that first moment which scattered the stars into space.

But if in your thought you must measure time into seasons, let each season encircle all other seasons,

And let today embrace the past with remembrance
and the future with longing.

Dedication

Few people have taken such a sincere interest in our class. With you, we have shared our successes as well as our failures. You've taught us to work together, to respect one another, and to appreciate true friendships. Somehow, a "thank-you" seems so meager. Yet deep down, immense gratitude is what we feel. So, with this in mind, we would like to thank you, Mr. and Mrs. Burnham for all that you have made possible for us.

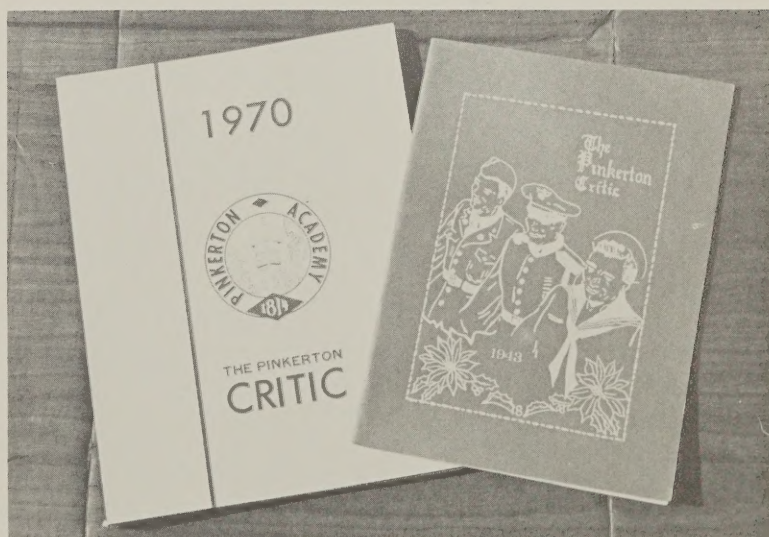

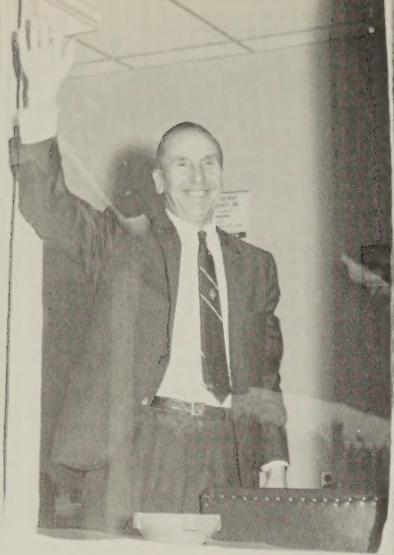

THANK YOU

We thank you, Miss Abbott, for your devotion to past Critic Staffs as well as our own. For 27 years you have served as faculty advisor; although this year you have transferred your energies to the Business Staff, your influence has nevertheless been felt. Again, we thank you . . .

Everything we do today is only possible through the experience of someone's yesterday.

Mr. Hackler

Our administrators and faculty have guided us in many of our endeavors, just as the sun guides her planets. The strength of this direction is timeless. We have expressed our gratitude in the past, we thank you for now and for the infinite occasions we will utilize your guidance in the future.

Seniors

We are all travelers of time, observing much in the span of our lives. We've seen Pinkerton through different eyes during our short visit, but we saw it last as seniors.

The Class of 1971 would like to thank you, Mrs. West, for the tireless effort which you dedicated to make our plays so successful.

Mr. Knowles, for three years you took a large part in our lives at Pinkerton. We respected you and we will never forget all the patience you had with us.

Appreciation

Mr. Noseworthy, as our teacher and as our friend you have shared with us many of our class activities. And it is through your efforts, Mr. Noseworthy, that many of these were successful.

A special thanks to you, Mr. O'Donnell, for all the guidance and assistance you have so willingly given us during our senior year.

It was almost solely due to your efforts, Miss Goranites, that the 1971 Critic was a success. To you we express our deepest appreciation.

Superlatives:

Most Talkative: Dot Manning and Ed Oriani—our speech specialists . . .

Most Popular: Sharon Nadeau and

Quietest Couple:
Chris Holbrook and Scott Author—they always listen . . .

Most Class Spirit: Sue Walsh and John Reed—our own special spirit spreaders . . .

Best Lookers: Kent White, Beverly Murphy and Mark Maccolino. "Do blonds have more fun?"

Paul Costly "Where's the party?"

Romeo and Juliet: Richard Evans and Carol Dill "She speaks, yet she says nothing."

Best All Around Students: Terry True and Don Boudreau—true blue . . .

Shortest and Tallest: Brenda Wood, Peter Fillis, Rion Levendowski and Lee Carter "WE have our UPS and Downs."

Best Natured: Stanley Jones and Helen Wilson—now, now, you two.

Best Actor and Actress: William Freer and Kathy Thompson "The answer is no."

Most Studios: John Beeman and Anne Folger "Ah you're wrong again!"

Most Likely To Succeed: Sherry Fredrickson and Doug Holaday—succeed in what?

Best Dressed: Denise Tabor and Keith Emery "I hate midis!"

Class Authors: Steve Christian and Shelly Vadeboncoeur—notes unlimited . . .

Best Athletes: Steve Benton and Lisa Samara "Anyone for a broken leg?"

Class Musicians: Ken Galvin and Jean Ann Cotton "Where is my piano?"

Class Artists: Brett Piper and Paula Hatfield "This should sell for $1500."

ARSENIC and Old Lace . . .

was presented by the '71 Juniors. Under the direction of Mrs. West, the class worked hard to make it a success. Posters were made, tickets were sold, and then came the night that made it all worthwhile . . .

Frantic whispers skittered back stage: "Where's the wine?" "Where's my jacket?" "Should I light the cigar?" And then the curtains parted . . .

Need we say more?

"TWELVE BODIES?!!" "In our cellar?"

One act down, two to go. And the action was just beginning.

Teddy went to "Africa", the Aunties went to Happy Dale, and the "DEAD" went home . . . after the parties, of course!

Senior Corn Roast

Although it is now past, the Senior Corn Roast will always be present in our minds. It was one of the last informal gatherings we seniors had together, before we each went our own way.

Looking Back and Comparing

1974's Freshman Reception with its pink and blue bonnets and baby carriage lets our memories slip back through time to our first year at Pinkerton. We can remember our grimaces, as jeering sophomores tied the baby bonnets under our chins; and how we too grew tongue-tied in the presence of "almighty" seniors. We are now those leading students.

This year Future Teachers of America was reorganized under the leadership of the new advisor, Mrs. Willson. The club's main goal has been set as service to the community; this goal has been realized by the members participation in the local Head Start Program in Derry. Various student teaching programs have also been set up. Members now have the opportunity to explore the areas of teaching ranging from pre-school to high school. Classes are observed while in session, and then taught by the members. Such a set-up enables members to decide before continuing their education whether or not teaching is the career for them.

Future Farmers of America

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA: FIRST ROW: D. Poirier, H. Blake, Mr. Conner, D. Ward, J. Ingalls. SECOND ROW: R. Pelletier, E. Black, R. Grieco, W. Freer, H. Maynard.

Future Farmers of America is a national organization of, by, and for students studying vocational agriculture. It has been designed to provide increased exposure to new techniques, and to serve in establishing organized competition. F.F.A. members have found their work greatly assisted by Pinkerton's new assets, the beef barn and the plastic greenhouse. Some members are working in crossbreeding, while others are taking advantage of the recently acquired forested land.

Debating Club

This past year, the Debating Club members concerned themselves with developing the art of debate. Through workshops and research, the members challenged such topics as the American Indian, the Space Program, and Environmental Control. In May a formal debate for faculty, parents, classmates and friends was held.

DEBATING CLUB: FIRST ROW: S. Andrews, D. Harvey, Secretary; Mrs. Sarner, Miss Goranites, L. Bergeron, Vice-President; J. Keywell. SECOND ROW: W. Christian, E. Oriani, C. Staples, President; S. Gleason, W. MacDonald. ABSENT: D. Demone, Treasurer.

COACH DICKSON AND CO-CAPTAINS PAUL COSTLEY, DON BOUDREAU.

A CLEAN BREAK-AWAY.

IT WAS A GREAT YEAR.

HERE WE GO AGAIN — ANOTHER T.D.

After our first victory of the season, the cry of the football team became "7 more to go." As the season progressed the cry became "6 more", then "5 more." As the "Little Red Machine" rolled on, the opponents began to worry. Pinkerton showed its fangs. By the end of the season Pinkerton had another great season.

FOOTBALL SQUAD: FIRST ROW: N. Adams, P. Bartlette, M. Macolino, D. Boudreau, P. Costley, S. Benton, M. Oliver, S. Cyr, M. Levandowski, J. Cox. SECOND ROW: D. Julian, C. Staples, A. Therien, J. FIFTH ROW: Mr. Cloutier, Mr. Dube, Mr. Goss, Coach Dickson, Mr. Burnham, Mr. McCann.

STARTING LINE-UP: FIRST ROW: M. Oliver, S. Benton, J. Young, D. Boudreau, M. Buckley, G. Cutting, J. Perroni. SECOND ROW: D. DeSisto, B. Dore, H. Deamone, J. Lizotte.

"Winning football teams must have outstanding leadership by the seniors. The job this year's seniors have done is complimented by the eight wins, one loss record. And this year's football team won as many games as any other team in Pinkerton's history."

VARSITY SQUAD: FRONT: M. Oliver, C. Hepworth, J. Beeman. BACK ROW: A. Billingsly, G. Cutting, H. Deamon, J. Lizotte, G. Boyle, T. Remsburg, J. Chadwick, D. DeSisto, T. Small, J. Calabro, Dan Julian.

This year's varsity team composed of twelve players had a very exciting season with close games throughout the year. Even though the team record wasn't the best, the boys didn't give up and played 100% every game. Included in the season, the team played in two overtime periods and lost ten games by five points or less. The highlights of the season was the trip to Berlin, which was enjoyed by everyone, and the bombing of St. Thomas 76-48. Next year's team seems to look good with nine juniors coming back, including three starters.

A final note is for Captain Carl Hepworth who was the first player to ever score 1,000 points in Pinkerton's 157 years of existence. The moral of this year's team was "it's not whether you win or lose, it's how you play the game."

Baseball

This year's team was built around the veteran Senior ball players: Carl Hepworth, John Beeman, John Perroni, and Steve Benton. The team, under the assistance of Coach Root and assistant Coach McCann, had a good season. Their ambitious schedule, included all of the top teams in the Class L division. The coaches are looking forward to a good turnout for the selection of Pinkerton's 1972 Baseball team.

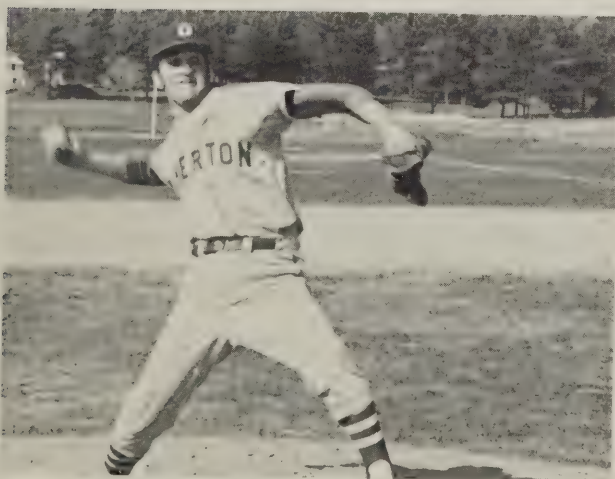

BASEBALL TEAM: FIRST ROW: J. Miedzionoski, L. Britton, D. Poirier, F. Davis, J. Ingalls, Mr. Eno, F. Simler. SECOND ROW: R. Smith, D. Hobbs, J. Perroni, Mr. Root, G. Cutting, C. Hepworth, G. Katsiores, T. Patterson. THIRD ROW: W. Muzzy, J. Settle, J. Fox, A. Clarke, B. Dore, R. Trombley, D. Dore, I. Casten. FOURTH ROW: C. Eno, J. Cooper, K. Dennehy, M. Pappachristas, R. Dillon, M. Beeman, R. Bretton, H. Maynard, J. Buckley. FIFTH ROW: G. Flibotte, T. Gregoire, D. Curry, M. Curry, M. Huston, J. Picc, K. Whitten, B. Worthen.

Lacrosse

Last year, the team finished with a 5-2 record, including a 7-4 loss to a strong Plymouth State College J. V. team. The record is deceiving, because Pinkerton played a lot of J. V. competition, while this year's team played with a stronger varsity competition. The defense was the strong point; holding opponents to a 3-1 goals per game were D. Boudreau (Sr.) and M. Oliver (Sr.). In the goal was C. Fowler with 72 saves for a 10.2 average per game. The team's high scorers were attackmen J. Chadwick (19 pts.) and T. Small (11 pts.).

Oops! O' well!

Style? Grace? Nope, just determination.

LACROSSE TEAM: FRONT: H. Deamon (Captain), M. Oliver (Assistant Captain). FIRST ROW: E. Richardson, J. Calabro, D. Boudreau, Mr. Bley, J. Chadwick, C. Fowler, T. Small. SECOND ROW: G. Johnston, W. Boyle, B. Demers, R. Trombley. THIRD ROW: J. McNamara, A. Billingsley (Manager), K. McCooles.
